

A high-performance business development platform

With Romain Leroux Racing × Aston Martin GT3
24 Hours of Spa-Francorchamps
27-28 June 2026

Brand visibility on a Aston Martin GT3 paired with private hospitality, premium co-branded content, and the calibre of association that comes with the 24h of Spa

In few lines

We believe the best business relationships are built outside of traditional settings. We use a Aston Martin racing programme in the 24h of Spa as a platform to create high-quality moments between you and the people who matter most to your business. One race, one car, one event. We don't just create it for the experience, we tailor it for business outcome.

HOW YOU WOULD USE THIS PLATFORM

Who you invite

Your most strategic accounts, key partners, and high-value prospects, the relationships that matter most to your business growth

What happens at the race

A day of private hospitality in the Aston Martin garage. Structured time with your guests in a distraction-free environment where real commercial conversations happen naturally.

Visibility in the right contexte

Anchor position on the Aston Vantage GT3 EVO. Branding alongside Aston Martin Racing and the CrowdStrike race partners - a calibre of association competitors cannot buy.

What you walk away with:

Stronger relationships with key accounts, premium content assets to support your communications, and a flagship moment that positions your company at the highest level.

Already proven: 100+ executive guests hosted across race weekends at Spa, Nürburgring, and Monza with partners including AdvaniDe, Trasna and others.
